JAPS SUBMIT TERMS

FOR CONCLUSION OF WAR.

Japan Asks the Repayment of the War Expenses and the Practical Russian Evacuation of the Far East.

Portsmouth, N.H., August 10.—The repayment of the immense sums expended in carrying on the war and the cessation of Sakhalin were the big features of the peace conditions yesterday handed to M. Witte, the Russian plenipotentiary by Baron Komura of Japan. The other terms are what the world expected and, with perhaps two exceptions could be entertained as a basis for negotiations. They include the cession of the Russian leases of the Liao Tung Peninsula comprising Port Arthur and Daini, the evacuation of the entire province of Manchuria, the retrocession to China of any privileges Russia may have in the province and the recognition by Russia of the principle of the "open door." The cession to Japan of the Chinese Eastern railroad below Harbin, the main line through Northern Manchuria to Vladivostok to remain Russian property, the recognition of a Japanese protectorate over Korea, the grant of fishing rights to Japan in the waters of the Siberian littoral northward from Vladivostok to the Behring Sea, the relinquishment to Japan of the Russian warships interned in neutral ports and, finally, the limitation upon the naval strength of Russia in the Far East. The terms are regarded as exceedingly hard by the Russians. In addition to the two principal conditions, those relating to limiting Russian naval power and granting fishing rights up Russian littoral are considered particularly offensive and of such humiliating character as to be inadmissible.

BALL GAMES.

Winnipeg, August 11.—Yesterday's scores: Duluth 41, Winnipeg 2; Crookston 4, Fargo 3; Grand Forks 5, Superior 5.

BURNED POLISH PALACE.

Loz, August 10.—More disturbances are occurring in Russian Poland. Two hundred and fifty Socialists were wounded and jailed at Warsaw. Moths have attacked and looted the Government treasures in three other towns and have burned the palace.

THE NEW ORLEANS PLAGUE.

New Orleans, August 10.—The total yellow fever cases to date are 760 and deaths 130. The numbers are increasing rapidly and the infection spreading. The council has authorized a big loan to fight the plague. Archbishop Chappelle, who died of the disease will not have a public funeral.

REGINA RACES.

Regina, August 10.—The racing at the fair today was good and a big crowd attended. The 230 pace or 2.25 trot fell to Don M. Blackbird taking second place. Za Za, belonging to Davis, of Calgary, captured all four places in the novelty. In the gentleman's road race Hill's Black Jim took first and Dr. Mathee's Aly Johnson second. Other interesting events were the Indian and Shetland pony races.

RESCUED FROM LAKE ONTARIO.

Toronto, August 11.—Auntie and Irene O'Connor, aged 14 and 19 years were rescued yesterday by the steamer Lakeland, after drifting on Lake Ontario twenty-nine hours in a sail boat. They had attended a picnic at Grimsby park. The elder child had lived the boat, but, finding the waves too much for her tried to land. Days in a spirit of mischief, pushed the boat off the beach and it drifted away. This occurred at 11 o'clock Wednesday morning. At four this afternoon the Lakeland picked them up. The elder girl had stripped herself to keep her little sister warm. Andie who had stood vigil through the night and the better part of two days was unconscious.

VOGEL CO. HAVE A BLAZE

Fire Damaged Building and Stock to the Amount of $1000 Last Night—Strathcona Brigade Called Out.

Fire broke out last night about midnight in the Vogel Meat & Packing Co.'s smoke house on Mill Creek. But for the timely discovery of Mr. C. Sands the fire would have been a most destructive one. As it was the smoke house was completely destroyed and some 3500 lbs. of bacon was burned.

The fire caught in the roof of the packing house but was extinguished before any great damage was done. The Strathcona fire brigade was called out, but the fire was pretty well under control before they were able to reach the place. The loss on the building will be about $400 and on contents about $600, partially covered by insurance.

MASONIC VISITORS

A special meeting of North Star Chapter No. 118, G. R. C., Royal Arch Masons, was held last evening in the Masonic hall on account of the official visit of Right Excellent Companion, Wm. Roaf, K. C. of Toronto, Grand Z., and J. M. Young, of Regina, Grand Superintendent of Alberta district. There was a large attendance of the members to meet the distinguished visitors.

At the close of the meeting the guests were entertained to a banquet at the Alberta at which covers were laid for forty. The menu was an excellent one and the toast list was much enjoyed. The singing of the quartette from Edmonton lodge No. 53, Messrs. Hanby, McLeod, Race and Casely was especially good and was much appreciated by the company.

Messrs. McLeod, Hanby and Day also sang solos which were enjoyed greatly. The affair was a most decided success and the guests freely expressed their appreciation of the hospitality extended to them.

A FEW REMARKS FROM MR. McLEAN

Mr. W. F. McLean, M.P., for South York, is making it plain these days that whatever redistribution shall be in process of evolution in the opposition camp will not be permitted to grow to perfection without his assistance and the due acknowledgment of his claims and qualities. With those forces in the party which have been making of late for the overthrow of its leaders personal and journalistic, Mr. McLean allied himself in a pretty distinct and vigorous manner in an address to his constituents at Oxford last week. It may have been an accident that while Mr. McLean's remarks occupied considerably over a column in other Toronto papers, no notice of either William or his meeting appears in the Mail and Empire.

The supposed subject of the discourse was the seasonal indemnity increase; its apparent object to depict the misfortunes of the Conservative party under the leadership of Hon. R. L. Borden, his organs and advisers; its spirit is not noticeably conciliatory and its purpose appears to be the exploitation of its author at the expense of his leader.

Mr. McLean opened by saying that Conservatives from Ontario were told at Ottawa that they must not have opinions and that men from the Maritime Provinces and from Quebec wished to dictate to Ontario members how they should think and act. "Ever since the defeat of the Conservative party in 1896," Mr. McLean proceeded, "my, rather ever since the Tupper's decided, the elder one in England, the younger in Canada, that remedial legislation should be forced through parliament restoring separate schools in Manitoba, the Conservative party has been ruled by the Tupper and the Montreal Star, a paper whose owner, Hugh Graham, is to be credited more than any other man with the defeat of 1896, 1900 and 1904, and whose recent escapade in connection with David Russell, Andrew Blair, and La Presse newspaper in the month of October last furnishes one of the most disgraceful episodes in Canadian history, an episode wherein these men undertook to fuggle and deal with the Conservatives of this province as if they had been pawns in a game. They concocted a scheme to put the Grits out and the Tories in that reads like a crazy man's invention. But it was based on money, on buying and selling, on bribery, on treachery and on keeping the Conservatives of Ontario ignorant of the plot."

Some Ontario Conservatives were still in touch with Graham-Tupper methods and of them "they do not," he said, "believe in principles, they do not believe in high-class, open organization in a great national convention of Conservatives to readjust and renew their principles in the light of progress, but are for clique rule by clique methods and insidious attack on those who are for bigger, wider and cleaner play."

He scored Mr. Borden for tardiness in attacking the Government on the Antipony Bill. When Mr. Borden finally made a deliverance it was too late and worst of all too weak. Mr. Borden seemed to be surrounded by advisers who thought he should deliver himself in a double way that could be construed favorably in Quebec and favorably also, but of course, with a different interpretation, in the West. "The people may be moved when a lion roars, not always when a lawyer talks."

The assumption from the paragraph and the speech is that the member for South York considers the lion to be none else than W. F. McLean, M.P.

The Toronto Star sizes Mr. McLean up in this manner: "As William Findlay McLean stands, self-confessed, the only strong man in British North America; the Gideon who, with a chosen band, consisting of the Toronto Telegram, the Toronto World, and the Winnipeg Tribune is to lead the Conservative party to victory; the young clean-shaven Joshua who is to take the reins out of the feeble hands of obsolete Mosses like Borden and Hazart and Foster; the only Daniel who can read the writing on the wall, the solitary Curtius to leap with his thousand dollars into the abyss of public opinion; the David who is to slay the railway Goliath; the Judith who is to destroy the oppressor of his country; the Joel who is to pierce the ear of monopoly; the Achan who is to act as God's scourge on grasping corporations—as W. F. McLean, M.P., undertaken to be the emancipator, regenerator, and everlasting preserver of the Dominion of Canada, destiny having stamped in large characters the word IT on his forehead, it becomes important to analyze his frame of mind, and see if he is up to the job."

"We submit that W. F. McLean lacks that majestic, paleolithic impassivity which a benevolent despot should possess; he is forever being flung dently to impulse, and playing hob with that repose of manner which impresses the vulgar with an appearance of reserve strength. Solon was a quiet man, with the advantage over the member for South York of an imposing set of whiskers. Lysurgus knew when to keep his mouth shut. Cato the Censor talked a little as his office would permit. Cicero was beheaded for talking too much. Pericles never proposed to buy the C. P. R. for a dollar and a half and to sell it for two dollars, thus making fifty cents on the transaction. The Greeks lost ground through their excessive use of adjectives. Solon approaches nearest to W. F. McLean in eager mentality, but Solon wrote too much—that Song of his is quite as indecent as any of W. F.'s speeches. The great reformers of history accomplished what they did by sticking to one thing. They didn't sing the flowers they saw no money in. They didn't try to represent the front page of a fads and fancies newspaper and a rural constituency at the same time. They didn't bewilder Parliament by the rapidity with which they could change their whims. They didn't claim all the rainbows as their own. They didn't get themselves scattered following all the glow-worms that go a-dancing on a summer night. In short, they didn't wander all over the lot, but with single mind and a set purpose they tended their particular corner, and got what they started out for.

"We submit that W. F. McLean lacks those stable qualities which would bind him to an ideal for more than twenty-four hours at a stretch. He lacks the gift of friendship which makes friends. He thinks it better to burn a newspaper than to stand-point to have enemies, because intelligent hostility lends zest to literary expression.

"Intellectual unrest we might pardon; inconsistency of purpose we might condone; but W. F. McLean has a graver fault still, which quite unfits him for the task he would assume. The member for South York is the most nervous man in the whole world. Far from cultivating the serenity of temper—the outward and visible symbol of a steadfast soul—which should be the attribute of Kings, the editor of the Toronto World is always up in the air. He would have his all going. You have only to look at his paper to see how he lives every day on the edge of a volcano. He never saunters down the country lane, whistling the while, that he doesn't trip on a precipice due there over night by his enemies. When he walks through the bush lot at the Scarboro farm, he finds the trees full of more's nests. He comes across all sorts of strange and terrible things—poisons asleep, foxes hatching out from their holes, enraged sheep full of more's nests, and buttermilk committing assault and battery on half-headed eels—signs and wonders indeed which if anybody other than W. F. McLean saw them, would cause unbounded surprise.

"As it is, we are not to view Mr. McLean's alarms and no livelier motion than one of mild exaltation as to what shape the latest phantom will take. Mr. McLean has a direful outlook on public life, but we can't always behave as if we were the fifth act of a tragedy put on the stage for the grim pleasure he will take in it."

Mrs. C. S. Merryday of Belleville, Ont., who has been visiting Mrs. James McDonald, of College avenue, left for Winnipeg on yesterday's train.

INAUGURATION DAY DECORATION.

If you are going to decorate your dwelling house the decoration committee advise that you buy your flags, bunting and Chinese lanterns now as they are in great demand.

Everybody it appears is going to decorate their house on Sept. 1st.

The committee want to be sure that there is enough bunting, etc., on hand to supply the demand. The school children and arches will take 3 to 4 thousand flags.

Alberta College is to the front and will build a large College arch which will be trimmed with the College colors and be a credit to that rapidly growing and prosperous institution. Messrs. Heuzia, Taylor and Butchart have the matter in charge.

The American Society of Equity have intimated their desire to take part in the celebration. This organization is strong throughout the district and what it does it will do well. It is composed entirely of farmers and has been formed to promote their financial interests. It is active and progressive.

The big arch will be a credit to the city. It will be made up of native grains and grasses and will show the natural resources of the district such as coal, stone, marl, etc.

Every street will be decorated. The committee have been very much encouraged by the manner in which each citizen has taken hold of the matter.

Ponoka is sending up a special train load of citizens with their flags and banners.

The school children of Edmonton and Strathcona and the surrounding districts with their flags flying combined with the decorations of the city and that of private citizens and the natural features of the city will make a grand display.

There will not be a house in Edmonton that will not be decorated in some way. Each citizen spoken to has intimated that his house will be suitably decorated for the occasion.

The city has been divided into 5 wards and sub-decoration committees of four or five are acting in each ward.

Many citizens intend to stretch banners across the street to their neighbors' residences.

—Some time since the Calgary Herald published a statement that it was generally charged that liquor was freely sold on the Edmonton exhibition grounds and that the license inspector had been struck over the head with the bottle in the hands of a journalist when he attempted to interfere. The Herald publishes the following reply from Mr. Cooper: "I went with the chief of police immediately to the booth in question. The chief was in advance and I brought up the rear. We entered into the booth by a small opening on the northeast corner of the booth. Just as the chief was entering and I close behind we saw Mayer, the proprietor, who was evidently in a great state of excitement, seize a bottle. He ran towards us at first, turned and made to the opposite corner from which we entered, still with the bottle in his hand. The chief of police made for the bottle to save it from destruction. I made for the man, and caught him by the neck. He, however, succeeded in breaking the bottle. In drawing back his arm to avoid detection by the chief of police he jolted me on the left side, but in a very gentle manner, more of an accident than otherwise. I immediately instructed the chief to place Mayer in jail, charging him with assaulting an officer in the performance of his duty."

SOURIS WON FROM BRANDON.

Brandon, August 10.—The champion Souris Lacrosse team won the match here this afternoon handing out the short end of a 5 to 1 score to the local. The visitors ran a special train up and many hundreds came in to see their team win. Brandon turned out in full force also. The game was notable from the fact that 29 men decorated the fence, not that there was any deliberate rough play but on account of the strictness of the referee.

NOT THE WHOLE THING.

The Regina Inauguration celebration committee have issued invitations for "The Territorial Inauguration Celebration" and request the presence of their guests at the ceremonies attendant upon the creation of the new provinces of "Alberta" and Saskatchewan in Regina on September the fourth.

This is a piece of gratuitous assumption upon the part of our Regina neighbors. Possibly they are not aware that the inaugural of the province of Alberta takes place in this city on September 1, the day upon which the province comes into existence by act of Parliament, and not four days later as is the case with Saskatchewan, and any effort to have the Alberta Inauguration in Regina on the fourth will be a trifle stale.

As to calling it a "Territorial" inauguration committee, there are no Territories to inaugurate and there is no one outside of Saskatchewan on their committee. They had better quietly look after the inauguration of the province of Saskatchewan alone, as Alberta will have a Lieutenant-Governor and be a full-fledged Province four days before they are ready to celebrate.

Mayor MacKenzie received an invitation for himself and Mrs. MacKenzie to attend the celebration at Regina. He says he is somewhat puzzled, as he had a clear recollection of assisting in voting $8,000 for the Alberta Inauguration here and just how Regina is going to appropriate the ceremony is not quite clear to him.

Because Regina got $8,000, half of which belonged to the people of Alberta, is no good reason why they should make a show of trying to have the Alberta Inauguration ceremony as well, especially when they know it is to be held here and when they made no effort to secure Edmonton's co-operation in a union affair.

—By a recent act of Parliament the naturalization forms have been changed, and local magistrates should not use the old forms any longer, as the court will not accept them. The new forms are being printed at the Bulletin office and any person requiring them can obtain them here in a few days.

NO BOUNTY ON RAILS

FREIGHT RATES REDUCED

Transcontinental Railway Commission Will Investigate the Proposed G. T. P. Terminals in Winnipeg

Ottawa, August 10.—The Government has passed an order in council excluding steel rails from the bounty granted steel manufactured in Canada.

The Railway Commission today issued an order requiring the C. P. and G. T. P. Co.'s to reduce freight rates on grain and grain products from Ontario to Montreal for export so as to harmonize with the rates from the Western States to the same export point. The effect is to put Canadian millers in a position of equality to the millers of the Western States in the matter of grain export.

The Transcontinental Railway Commission in about ten days will leave for Winnipeg to investigate the terminals there for the new line. It is believed they will receive and discuss a proposition from the Canadian Northern for joint use of the terminals which the latter proposes to build.

Ex-Premier Parent, of the Railway Commission, left today for Quebec where, as mayor of that city he will join in the welcome to Louis of Battenburg, and the British cruiser squadron.

PEACE RIVER COUNTRY

Albertan.—Rev. Mr. Simpson and wife late of Spirit River, Peace River, arrived in the city a couple of days ago from the north, where they have been laboring in the mission established there by the Presbyterian church for the last two years.

Mr. Simpson speaks hopefully of the future of the Peace River country. He is not as enthusiastic as some persons who have been located in the north, but he flatly contradicts the gloomy reports which have been given of that country and which have been circulating here recently. His story of the country is a happy mean between the enthusiastic and the gloomy one.

In the Peace River country for the last two years the seasons have been very dry. However, the present season seemed to promise well when they left, which was in the last week in June. In fact, the wheat in that country seemed to be as good as the wheat at Edmonton. The frost that made its presence felt in the north in general also touched the Peace River country on June 22.

Mr. Simpson complains that the most serious handicap to the country is the lack of transportation facilities. Freight is so high that it makes living unusually expensive, and he sees no relief from this until railways make their way into the country. Then he believes that Peace River will take its place as one of the good, fruitful and profitable districts of Canada.

—Winnipeg Tribune.—Speaking at length of palmistry Madame Bayla said "Palmistry has rightly won a place among the sciences, and the profession in Europe is one of the most respected. The home of the science is in India, where Cheiro, under whom I studied, spent years. Of course there are many who do not believe in palmistry and many who confuse it with clairvoyance. Among the most intellectual and most learned of men the science is accepted and among them the profession has the most patrons." "Development of the brain" Madame continued, "is indicated by the lines of the hand. The exact state of the health, and what success is likely to wait in the future is clearly indicated and can be read by one who has studied the science as it should be studied. It takes years of study to acquire the art, and then, as in other professions, there is still much to learn. Among my pupils in Paris was Edmond Rostand the noted playwright. He had his hand read quite often. In general it showed great success and honor attained in literature, and strange to say every one of his great successes registered in his hand, which proves the assertion that as the mind develops the hand registers."

The Russian Assembly

St. Petersburg, August 10. — The Russian Assembly, the first gathering together of representatives of the Muscovite people since Emperor Alexander Michaelovitch, the second of the Romanoffs, summoned the last Zemsky Sobor in the seventeenth century, will be proclaimed on Saturday next. The final session of the special commission which has been considering the project as drafted by Minister of the Interior Bouliouin, and elaborated by the council of ministers was held at Peterhof today. Its verdict upon the project as a whole, was favorable, and at the conclusion of the session Emperor Nicholas set the seal of his approval thereto.

The sitting today continued for ten hours, when the commission finished the labors upon which it has been engaged almost constantly for the past week. Several of the members in whom the emperor reposes special confidence were requested by him to return to Peterhof tomorrow to assist him in the preparation of a solemn manifesto, through which the summons to the representatives of the people will be issued. The report that Emperor Nicholas will go to Moscow, the ancient capital of the empire, to proclaim this epoch-making change in the institutions of Russia, has been revived and finds credence.

It is known that special precautions have been instituted for guarding the railroad between St. Petersburg and Moscow, over which the emperor would travel. Though the project has undergone many changes during the various conferences at Peterhof it is understood that its main outlines are substantially in accord with the project as it emerged from the council of ministers and described in these despatches from time to time. In principle the national assembly will be a deliberative and consultative body for the discussion of measures laid before it. It will have the power to force the withdrawal of ministerial propositions by a two-thirds vote, which gives it at least a negative control over legislation. It will be a large body, probably over 500 members, chosen by a system of indirect elections, and the first session, it is understood, will be held in November. The elections will take place in October.

—On Monday the ratepayers vote on money bylaws aggregating $65,500, also on a bylaw empowering the council to grant exemption from taxes to the Alberta Milling Co.

—The W.C.T. Unions of the North West Territories have presented Mrs. James McDonald with a certificate of life membership. Mrs. McDonald is the first life member in the Territories.

—At the Fort Saskatchewan Fair on Wednesday the Edmonton and Clover Bar football teams played a tie, each scoring 4 goals. The Fort Saskatchewan junior baseball team defeated the Partridge Hill and Strathcona teams.

—Regina Standard—William John Harvey, who met death on Sunday in the waters of the Qu'Appelle river, was a graduate of the last Normal class. He came originally from Ivanhoe, Ont., where his father, J. A. Harvey, now resides. His mother is dead. After passing his non-professional examinations in Madoc, Ont., the unfortunate man came west, and on Tuesday, April 25, engaged to teach Cornwall school, at Farty Hill for six months.

—Senator Frost, Smith Falls, Ont., who was here yesterday was looking over the city with a view to having the headquarters for the west for the Frost and Wood Implement Co., of which he is the head, establish here. It is the intention of the company to erect large warehouses in this city. The Winnipeg manager will come up in a few weeks when property will likely be purchased for this purpose. When the C.N.R. reaches here Edmonton will probably become headquarters for a good many implement firms.

—Regina Standard: With the thermometer registering one hundred and twenty degrees of heat in the sun, and eighty-seven in the shade, Regina was forced to stick to the indoors or run the risk of being prostrated by the scorching rays of "Old Sol." Two ladies of the city were overcome by the heat and had to seek shelter within the houses of friends. The ladies, Miss Miller and Miss Anderson, both of the Regina Trading Co. staff, were affected while returning at the dinner hour. The heat was very generally felt by citizens, and more than one felt almost faint under the scorching rays of the sun.
